

SOUVENIR R 438 SPACE //

WHO WE ARE

S438S is a symbiotic arts lab set in the heart of London's creative district Shoreditch a multi functional creative space/cultural hub, building genre defining connections.

Launch your next project in the heart of Shoreditch, in a unique space with high ceilings that lends its self to a wide array of creative exhibitions, events, launches and experiential ideas. Set within a brutalist space, Souvenir 438 is a 250sq gallery space with an expansive outside area situated on a side street surrounded by a vibrant creative, social and forward thinking community ensuring a lively and engaged audience for events and gatherings.

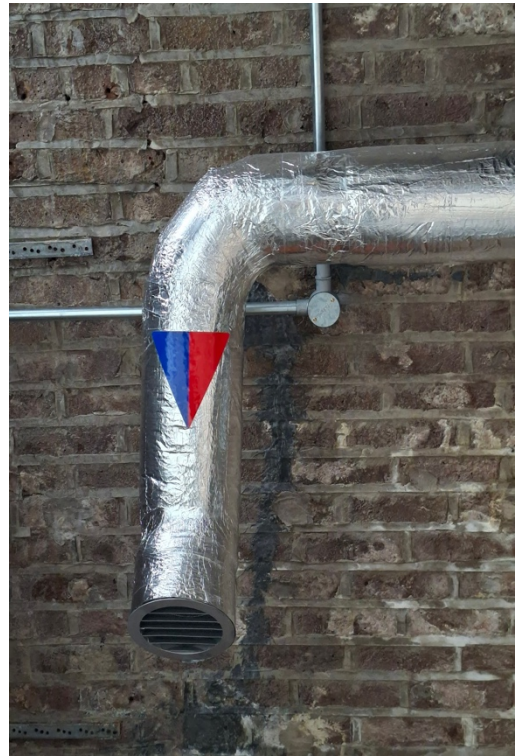

This modern creative space is compact with a capacity of 50 people inside packed with many options for hanging artworks/ installations with storage space aswell. The huge bay window at the front also adds character to environment projecting great natural light. S438S has the added benefit of having ample space outside which can also be transformed into a fully functioning creative environment.

Extra event exposure is also possible through our off-site billboard sites 2 mins from S438S which have a ready-made footfall.

Situating close to Hoxton/Shoreditch Overground, and Old St Tube, making the space easily accessible from across London. The on-site team are experienced in working in events and pop-ups/photo shoots and are available to provide support.
